LINDEN HALL STUDIO MARKS THE GODFATHER AT 55 WITH AN EXTRAORDINARY DAY OF CINEMA AND ITALIAN DINING

The first two films return to the big screen as one sweeping story, accompanied by a specially created menu from renowned chef Petra Hallstrom of Heatonomy.

SATURDAY 20 MARCH 2027 | DEAL, KENT | 30 SEATS | TICKETS £65

DEAL, KENT, 2 SEPTEMBER 2026

Linden Hall Studio will mark the 55th anniversary of Francis Ford Coppola's The Godfather with a rare one-day presentation of The Godfather and The Godfather Part II on Saturday 20 March 2027. The landmark films will be shown together in the gallery's intimate 45-seat cinema, creating an exceptional shared experience of cinema, food and conversation.

Seen as a single, sweeping story, the two films follow the rise and transformation of the Corleone family across generations. Presented using Linden Hall Studio's 4K laser projection system and surround sound, the programme offers audiences the chance to experience Coppola's extraordinary visual world with the time, scale and attention it deserves.

The day has been designed to feel generous, relaxed and beautifully paced. Three intervals of Italian hospitality will punctuate the films, with a specially created menu prepared by renowned chef Petra Hallstrom of Heatonomy.

"We want this to feel like the way cinema should be experienced: generous, communal and given time. Seen together, the first two Godfather films are monumental, and pairing them with Petra Hallstrom's Italian menu turns the day into something beyond a conventional double bill: a complete shared occasion."

Myles Corley, Gallery Director, Linden Hall Studio

The day begins with Italian coffee and filled focaccia, followed by a full Italian lunch from 1.00 to 2.00 pm. An afternoon tris di tiramisù offers a tasting of three interpretations of the classic dessert, with the option of a small glass of sweet Italian wine. Italian wine and soft drinks will accompany lunch.

Doors open at 9.15 am, with the first film beginning at 9.45 am. The screenings conclude at approximately 5.45 pm, after which guests may stay for an optional 30-minute debrief and informal discussion. Tickets are £65 and include both films, the complete menu and all advertised refreshments. Only 45 places are available.
